

Edmonton Gay and Lesbian

COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. 1, No. 2
July/August 1990

Editor: Nola Etkin

This month's Newsletter is a double issue for July and August, since many people in the community (myself included) will be visiting Vancouver at the beginning of August. The calendars for the summer months are full of exiting and wonderful events for everybody.

Speaking of exiting and wonderful events, last month's Pride '90 was the most successful ever. Thanks to all the participants and organisers, who worked so hard to make the week memorable!

For anyone interested in civil rights issues, watch for GALA's symposium "Flaunting It", A Question of Gays/Lesbians and Human Rights. The symposium will be held November 29th to December 1st at the Edmonton Inn, and will feature several authors, Human Rights Commission members, and the always popular Svend Robinson. For more information, call 454-8031, or write: Symposium Committee, 11303 - 102 Ave, Edmonton, T5K-0P6.

As everybody must know by now, Vancouver is host to Celebration '90 - Gay Games III in August. I hope that lots of us from Edmonton will be able to go, and cheer on Team Edmonton! I'll see you there! Have a great summer!

Parents Of Gays And Lesbians

As part of Pride Week, GALOC and the Gay and Lesbian Youth Group sponsored a panel discussion focussing on issues of parents of lesbians and gays. The evening was a great success, both for the parents and lesbian and gay participants.

The idea of forming a local chapter of Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) was met with much enthusiasm, and plans are now being made for an initial meeting. If you are interested in the group, or your parents want to become involved, please call GLCCE for updated information.

GLCCE News

The Gay and Lesbian Community Center is looking for part-time and substitute counsellors. If you have worked at the center in the past, or would like to get involved for a minimal amount of time, please call GLCCE.

For anyone who is interested in counselling, GLCCE will be offering a course in peer counselling in the fall. Please call for info.

Finally, if you are not yet a member, here is more incentive: All members of GLCCE will get this Newsletter in the mail every month. Now isn't that a good reason to join?!!
